In order to continue enjoying our site, we ask that you confirm your identity as a human. Thank you very much for your cooperation. A discussion activity designed to bring out the best (and worst!) in your students. Place students in two lines facing each other and then project the presentation onto your IWB. Students take turns being the pessimist or the optimists and share with their partner how they feel about each situation. Don't forget to switch partners after every statement. Page Loading. Whereas, optimists prepare themselves to achieve something great in life. Is your student an optimist or a pessimist? What is his/her viewpoint on this issue? In case you want to discuss the benefits and drawbacks of being an optimist and a pessimist with your students, here is a worksheet that suits Intermediate learners. In this lesson, students do a quiz to find whether they are an optimist or a pessimist, watch a TED talk "Choosing Optimism", enlarge their vocabulary on the given topic, learn about Murphy's law and role-play different situations being an optimist and a pessimist.
